

LESSON
19

Contrast: Subject Pronouns, Object Pronouns, and Possessive Adjectives

Subject Pronouns	Object Pronouns	Possessive Adjectives
I you he she it we they	me you him her it us them	my your his her its our their
Before verbs:	After most verbs and after prepositions:	Before nouns:
I see the students.	The students see me. He is in front of me.	Morgan is my neighbor.

A Heather is introducing us to her neighbors. Circle the correct words in each sentence. Then listen to check your answers.

1. (Me/My) name is Heather. My parents and (I/me) live in this house. We like the neighborhood, but (we/it) have problems with some of (our/your) neighbors.

2. This is Mr. Parker. (He/Him) lives next door to (we/us). (He/Him) plays the trumpet every morning at 6:00 a.m. We like (he/him), but we don't like (he's/his) trumpet.

3. This is Morgan and (his/her) wife Susie. (They/She) live next door to Mr. Parker. We have problems with (they/them) because (he/they) have a very unfriendly dog. (They/Their) dog barks every night.

4. This is Mrs. Rivera. She lives across the street from (we/us). (She/He) is eighty years old. We like (she/her) because she bakes chocolate chip cookies for (we/us) every Sunday. (Her/ Hers) cookies are delicious!

B Use the information from Exercise A to answer these questions. Use subject and object pronouns for the underlined words.

1. When does Mr. Parker play his trumpet?

He plays it every morning.

2. When does Mrs. Rivera bake chocolate chip cookies?

..... bakes every Sunday.

3. Does Heather like the neighborhood?

Yes, likes very much.

4. How do Heather and her parents feel about the neighbors?

..... have problems with some of

5. Does Mrs. Rivera live next door to Heather and her parents?

No, doesn't live next door to

6. Do Morgan and Susie live across the street from Mrs. Rivera?

No, don't live across the street from

C Read the conversations between the neighbors. Complete the sentences. Use the words in parentheses. You can use some words more than once.

1. (you, your, it)

Heather: Mrs. Rivera, where did you buy hat?

Mrs. Rivera: I bought in Hawaii.

Heather: looks good on

2. (he, him, his)

Mrs. Rivera: I think Mr. Parker is very strange. plays trumpet so early in the morning!

Heather: We should talk to about that.

3. (we, our, us)

Heather: Hi. Are you new neighbors?

Jane and John: Yes, live down the street. address is 22 Oak Street.

Heather: Welcome to the neighborhood. Please visit some time!

Jane and John: Thanks!

4. (it, they, them, their)

Heather: How do you like the neighborhood?

Jane and John: We like very much. 's very safe.

Heather: Have you met all the neighbors?

John: Well, we met Morgan and Susie. seem very nice, but dog isn't very friendly.

Heather: I know!