1. research question
2. search engine
3. search box
4. keywords
5. search results
6. links

Conducting Research

A. select a search engine

B. type in a phrase

C. type in a question

D. click the search icon / search

E. look at the results

F. click on a link

G. bookmark a site

H. keep a record of sources

I. cite sources

More vocabulary

research: to search for and record information that answers a question investigate: to research a problem or situation

Ways to talk about your research

My research shows ____.

According to my research, ____.

These are the results of my research: ____.

7. menu bar
8. browser window
9. back button
10. URL / website address
11. refresh button
12. web page
13. source
14. tab
15. drop-down menu
16. content
17. pop-up ad
18. video player
19. social media links
20. date

Internet Research: online practice

Type "practice" in the search bar. Add more keywords. ("ESL vocabulary," etc.)

Report: I found vocabulary practice on a site called ____.

Think about it. Discuss.

1. Which is better for Internet research: searching with a question, a phrase, or keywords? Explain.
2. Do you enjoy research? Why or why not?